Day 1 - Travel to Indianapolis

Our first stop today is the front of the Illinois State House to see the first of two “Madonna of the Plains” Statues on our tour. There’s a neat story that goes along with these statues that stretch across the entire country. We will check into our hotel near Indianapolis, IN.

Day 2 - National Museum of the Air Force

This morning, you’ll tour the National Museum of the Air Force, the oldest and largest military aviation museum in the world! In addition to military planes the museum houses Presidential aircraft used by Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower. The centerpiece of this collection is an aircraft that was used by Presidents Kennedy, Nixon and Johnson. We’ll travel a little further, spending the night in Wheeling, WV.

Day 3 - Flight 93 Memorial

Today, we will visit the Flight 93 National Memorial. You’ll learn how the passengers and flight crew of Flight 93 fought back. After we leave the memorial we’ll make our way north to our hotel near Hershey, PA.

Day 4 - Hershey Chocolate World

This morning we’ll visit the sweetest place on earth, Hershey Chocolate World. You will have the chance to browse endless Hershey brands and get some gifts for the grandkids. You’ll also get to make your own chocolate bar! We’ll spend tonight in Binghamton, NY.

Day 5 - Baseball Hall of Fame Museum

Located in Cooperstown, NY, the National Baseball Hall of Fame Museum is rich with baseball history of years gone by. It’s mission is preserving America’s pastime and celebrating legendary players, managers and team officials. This afternoon we take the back roads to Concord, NH. Along the way we’ll visit some real neat country stores and get to see a couple of covered bridges. If the weather is good it will be a great day for a picnic.

Day 6 – Nubble Lighthouse

This morning we’ll arrive at the Nubble Lighthouse. This is the most photographed lighthouse in the country and you’ll see why when you get there. After we leave
