Day 1 - Superman Museum & Gift Shop

We start our travels with a drive through Illinois, stopping at Metropolis, the hometown of Superman. We will see the “bigger than life” Superman statue and visit the Superman Museum & Gift Shop. We will go through Kentucky to Nashville, TN for the first night.

Day 2 - Belle Meade Plantation

We'll spend much of our day at the Belle Meade Plantation with its beautiful grounds and architecturally significant buildings. We will hear the history told through the eyes of those who worked to make the Plantation America's premier thoroughbred horse farm. The day will end at our hotel in Hendersonville, NC.

Day 3 - Fort Sumter

Today, we will make our way to Charleston, SC with our afternoon stop at Fort Sumter where the first shots of the Civil War were fired. There will be time afterwards to take in some of the sights and sounds of Charleston, a 350-year-old coastal South Carolina city with cotton-candy colored homes, cobblestone lanes and walled gardens.

Day 4 - Magnolia Plantation and Gardens

Charleston City Market will offer us a morning of shopping in one of the nation's oldest public markets in the cultural heart of Charleston. We will then go to visit the Magnolia Plantation and Gardens. It is the oldest public tourist site in the Low Country, and the oldest public gardens in America. We will view the beautiful flowers and plants and learn the rich history of the family home. Then, on to Savannah, GA for tonight.

Day 5 - Savannah, GA

We will start the day with a view from Tybee Island Lighthouse, Georgia's oldest and tallest lighthouse. You might even want to climb the 178 steps to the top for an even better view. We will then see the best of Savannah, called “Georgia's First City”, from the Old Town Trolley. You can hop-off and hop-on at 15 different locations as you wander through this city packed with Southern charm and elegance of a rich architectural legacy. We will be ready for a second night at our hotel in Savannah, GA.

April 30 - May 9, 2024

October 29 - November 7, 2024

Day 6 - Jacksonville Beach, FL

Early to rise, we leave Georgia for the beautiful beaches of Jacksonville Beach, FL. This coastal resort city offers sun, sand and surf, along with sightseeing attractions and shopping. We will take time to relax and enjoy this part of the “sunshine” state.

Day 7 - St. Augustine, FL

This will be the day to step back into the past as we delight in the European flavor of St. Augustine with its brick-lined streets and centuries-old buildings. You will have the entire afternoon to see and explore the nation’s oldest city via the narrated hop-on hop-off trolley. We will spend a second night in Jacksonville Beach, FL.

Day 8 - National Civil War Naval Museum

Today, we will travel to Columbus, GA and tour the National Civil War Naval Museum. We will explore exhibits of the nation’s most unique Civil War artifacts. It is claimed to be the only museum in the nation that tells the story of the two Navies during the Civil War. Later in the day, we will take a leisurely stroll along the Chattahoochee River before checking into our hotel.

Day 9 - Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum

The first destination today is the Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum which holds the Guinness World Record for the world’s largest motorcycle collection. We will also see an assortment of rare, celebrated antique automobiles. After lunch, we will travel to Memphis, TN. There our evening will be spent on Beale Street, a national landmark because of the impact Memphis has had on American blues. We will have dinner and catch some “blues” after checking into our hotel.

Day 10 - Rock ‘n’ Soul Museum

Before leaving Memphis, we will stop at the Rock ‘n’ Soul Museum. This exhibition, about the birth of rock and soul music, was created by the Smithsonian Institution. It tells the story of musical pioneers who, for the love of music, overcame racial and socio-economic barriers to create the music that shook the entire world. From there, we are bound for home.
