Day 1 & 2 - Travel from Missouri to Denver

After lunch, we'll visit the Museum of Independent Telephony. This museum is full of telephone history including the first phone installed in Kansas in 1877. We'll spend tonight in Salina, KS. (L) On day 2, we take another step back in time and visit the Limon Railroad Museum. While here, you can board the caboose and dining car to picture yourself riding the rails in the 1940s. It will be fun to compare this to the modern day train you'll board tomorrow in Denver, CO. (B,L)

Day 3 - Amtrak California Zephyr

We'll board the Amtrak California Zephyr and travel through the mountains and gorges on our way to Glenwood Springs, CO. We'll see the yellow aspens from a beautiful viewing car and can have lunch and play cards on board. After checking in, we'll get ready for a nice dinner and a comedy show at the Glenwood Vaudeville Revue. (B,D)

Day 4 - A day in Glenwood Springs

This morning we will take a scenic gondola ride to the top of Iron Mountain and visit Glenwood Adventure Park. This afternoon you are free to explore this resort town, known for its hot springs and public mineral baths. Bring your swimsuit!!! (B,L)

2 nights at Hotel Colorado in Glenwood Springs

Day 5 - Rocky Mountain National Park

Today we'll see more of the beautiful colors of Colorado as we drive through Rocky Mountain National Park. On the north side we'll have time to do some shopping at the visitors center and in the quaint little town of Estes Park, CO. We'll spend tonight near Denver, CO. (B,L)

Day 6 & 7 - Travel from Denver to Missouri

On day 6, we'll visit the Sternberg Museum of Natural History on our way to Salina, KS. On day 7, we head home to Missouri, ending our trip with a picnic lunch and reminiscing about what a wonderful tour we had. (B,L)
