6 days / 5 Nights

Day 1 - Travel to Texas

We're Texas-bound! Today's all about making miles, munching on snacks, and maybe even sneaking in a nap or two. The Lone Star State is waiting, and we're on our way. We'll spend tonight near Gainesville, TX.

Day 2 - Magnolia Market

On day 2, we stop in Waco, TX where you will have some time at the Magnolia Market at the Silos. There is something for everyone here. For lunch, we'll picnic and then tour the Dr. Pepper Museum. This evening we'll drive on to San Antonio, TX. You'll have time to visit the Riverwalk and find a nice restaurant for dinner.

Day 3 - The Alamo & Riverwalk

We'll visit the Alamo this morning and then you're free to take the hop on-hop off Trolley around the town. We will stroll the Riverwalk and take a river cruise sometime during the day. There are many opportunities for shopping and dining before spending a second night in San Antonio.

Day 4 - LBJ Presidential Library & JFK Sixth Floor Museum

This morning, we will visit the LBJ Presidential Library. You'll learn more about our 36th president. After lunch, we'll travel to visit the JFK Sixth Floor Museum where you'll get to explore the life and legacy of John F. Kennedy. We'll stand where Lee Harvey Oswald changed the course of history in the United States. We'll spend tonight near Plano, TX.

Day 5 - J.M. Davis Arms Museum

We'll continue our trek north today and visit the J.M. Davis Arms Museum, the largest privately held firearms collection in the world. We'll make our way to Tulsa, OK and have a relaxing evening unless you want to try your luck at the casino. .

Day 6 - Woolaroc Museum

Before heading home, we'll make one final stop at the Woolaroc Museum. It presents one of the most unique collection of Western art in the world. There's no doubt you'll find a treasure or two here. Now it's time to head home with great memories.
